Sir,

With reference to Section 8 of the Mysore Infant marriage-Prevention Regulation X of 1894, I have the honor to submit that one Sesha Iyengar of Halthore village Madiballi Hobli, Belur Taluk, — Caused the marriage of his Granddaughter Thimmalamma an infant of 18 months. The father of the Child by name — Lakshimpathy Iyengar says that he simply obeyed his father Sesha Iyengar in giving away his his Child in marriage to one Raghunatha GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE

-chat 18 years old, a resident of Byalahalli Hassan Taluk.

2. — In the petition presented by one Jamna Iyengar, who first brought the matter to my notice, it is stated that Lesha Iyengar and his son Lakshmipathi Iyengar obtained Rs. 65-0/- from the bridegroom before the marriage, but Lesha Iyengar states that he being old (61 years) wished to see celebrated the marriage of his grandchild before his death. and that he was also anxious about getting a suitable match for the child should the present opportunity be lost. He pleads his ignorance of the Regulation and a custom among his people of marrying Children of 2 years and above.

3— As the marriage is stated to have been celebrated on Vyaksha
-shudda

4 shudda Thrithiya last which falls on about the 27th of April last, six months have expired from the date of publication of the Regulation in the official Gazette (No. 41 dated 11th October 1894) Sesha Iyengar who caused the marriage, Lakshmi-pathi Iyengar, his son, who abetted the marriage and Raghunathacha the husband of the Child have rendered themselves liable to prosecution. —
